

NYSSA

(From Nyssa Journal)

O. L. Palmer made some improvements last week on his ranch house, one mile west of town.

John Ross, a sheep man from upper Succor creek, has returned to Scotland, his former home, to join the army of the allies.

Mr. C. DeBoer, our efficient new road supervisor, did some good work last week on the road between Pete Tensen's and Alex McDonald's.

Among the new arrivals in this vicinity are Mr. G. Neal, Mr. Admiral Keck and their families. They are from Oklahoma. They are so well pleased with this country that they will locate.

Work has been resumed on the drainage system near John Ward's ranch, after a delay of a few days. Mr. I. G. Anderson has taken the contract and expects to be occupied for some time in the completion of the project.

The wolf which has been bothering the people in the west end of the Kolony for some time was shot by Mr. Waltz last Sunday morning.

If you will grease your trees for three feet above the ground with any kind of soft oil or grease you will need no fence to keep out rabbits as they are strict vegetarians. The editors have this from an experienced horticulturist and can vouch for its worth.

B. F. Smith and A. E. Kimball, whose farms lie about one mile northwest of town, are putting in a half mile of twelve-inch pipe to convey water for irrigation purposes. The pipe line will replace the old wooden flume which has been in use for a number of years.

At the last meeting of the Library association it was decided to have the formal opening of the Nyssa Public Library Thursday, May 4. It will be held in the afternoon and evening and the entire population of Nyssa and vicinity will be invited. Light refreshments will be served. It is expected that the new books, which are ordered, will be here by that time.

Mr. White and Mr. N. H. Hon are preparing several acres of Mr. White's farm for planting some undiseased seed potatoes. They have not as yet located the seed but will probably ship it in from the East. If they are successful in getting the seed potatoes they will be able to supply at least the vicinity of Nyssa with excellent undiseased seed potatoes next year.

The requisites of an ideal dairy country are good hay and corn producing lands, moderate climate, energetic and progressive farmers, a convenient market for their products and good transportation facilities. Nyssa and surrounding country possess each essential. The large established farms under the Owyhee ditch produce on an average 90 bushels of corn and 20 tons of silage per acre, the quality of which is unexcelled. From eight to 15 tons of alfalfa per acre are raised. There are also a large number of farms under the Shoestring ditch which are rapidly coming up to the standard.

The climate is very admirably adapted to this particular vocation. The temperature rarely falls below zero in the winter and the summers are not excessively hot.

The farmers are both energetic and progressive. There are many silos and modern barns in the valley, some of which are equipped with milking machines. Their farms are kept in first-class condition.

The Nyssa cheese factory, owned by the farmers themselves, is a very convenient market for milk. It is near a railroad and the cheese can be easily and inexpensively sent to other towns. Nyssa has moderately good roads and Drayman Willis' new auto truck greatly increases the transportation facilities.

"DOGIES."

The appearance in the beef cattle sales of animals described as "doggy" make it expedient to tell the uninitiated what a "doggy" is. The doggy (dog)-accent on the do) is defined as being a motherless range calf. Now, if you could see these animals you would get in a striking way the evil of the mother running off to the polls to vote and leaving the young at home to care for themselves. You would also conclude that the name doggy is not derived from dough, gram.

A FREAK AD

For Everybody But Freaks

WE WANT YOUR MONEY! We want it because we are human, and because we are intensely human we want every dollar of it we can get. Yes, we readily admit that this is a freak statement to make, but the only difference between us and other freaks is that we admit the truth that we want your money, and THEY DON'T. We are retailing goods for what we can get out of it—for what we can make out of you—just as you are keen to make every dollar possible out of other people, AND OUT OF US. Now isn't that the unvarnished truth?

BUT HOW are we going to get hold of your money? How are we going to induce you to "loosen up and cough up?" There is only one way under the sun, and that is to MAKE OUR GOODS AND PRICES SO ATTRACTIVE TO YOU THAT YOU SIMPLY CAN NOT RESIST BUYING FROM US INSTEAD OF FROM THE OTHER FELLOW. We know full well that you are going to hang onto that dollar to the last minute, and that the fellow who gets it MUST FIRST MAKE GOOD. We know that when it comes to the spending of that dollar you don't care a tinker for us or for any other man. What you want is RESULTS— and WE WILL GIVE YOU THEM.

YOUR DOLLARS look mighty good to us, and we are just aching to get hold of them. We are keen after them—you know it, and we admit it—so let's get right down to the fine edge of business that will cause you to hand them over while we rake them in, and then we'll both profit from the deal—especially you.

YOU CAN'T LIVE without eating, and eating is a powerful expensive proposition these days. At least it is to us. But you just come right here for all of your groceries, for everything in the eat line. Because we want your money we will just rip the life right out of prices. Oh, yes, we love our competitors, for they are all good fellows, BUT WE LOVE YOUR MONEY A WHOLE LOT MORE, and we want it, and we are going to give you an opportunity to live like kings and princes at a poor man's cost. Our prices will turn the trick.

BUT EATS are not the only thing we sell. We carry everything a department store ever carries, and many things most of them never think of carrying, and that is an added reason why you should let us have your money—and GET BIG RETURNS FOR IT. You can save a lot of time and get a whole lot of satisfaction in buying everything here—clothing, dry goods, furnishings, shoes, hosiery, millinery, etc.

YES, YES, YOU BET! If you come here and spend every dollar you own with us we'll shove the goods at you and haul in your money and keep right on smiling at both ends and in the middle—for we want your money, and don't forget for one minute that we are making the prices and giving you the quality of goods to get it.

NOW THIS is a freak ad, but it's truth, and if it doesn't appeal to your sound common sense and to your pocketbook we'll miss our guess—and our guess is that we are going to get some of your good money because of this very freak ad that is so full of facts and irresistible truths, for TRUTHFUL PEOPLE ADMIRE THE TRUTH IN OTHERS.
